5 Stars for 'INSIDE': Realistic Depiction Of Life In A Police Department.

INSIDE by J.C. De Ladurantey.

A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

Policing the streets is less precarious than the intrigue and drama behind the balusters and bulletproof glass of a police station. The interaction with the public can be the escape our men and women in blue need to avoid the administrative bureaucracy that controls their actions and often dictates what they can and cannot do. Orchard Hill PD is not immune to the intrigue and changes that drive today's police departments. There are two things' police officers' hate. First is the way things are. The second is changing the way things are. Some try to hide on the graveyard or night shift to get away from the inside workings of a PD, but sooner or later, it catches up to everyone, even Detective Howard Hamilton.

What occurs outside does not necessarily translate to what goes on INSIDE. Ride along with Detective Howard Hamilton as he unravels a series of mysteries INSIDE.

- Was Detective Hamilton responsible for his Chief losing his job?
- Why are his coworkers and family pushing him into a relationship he may not be ready for?
- Are vice crimes victimless?
- Are Hamilton's computer analytical skills up to the challenge of complex investigations?
- Detective Hamilton and his team are propelled from a simple investigation into an international drug and human smuggling cartel that takes cooperation at the Regional, State, and Federal levels.
- See how this intrigue unravels with a front-row seat in another Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

5 Stars for 'INSIDE': Realistic Depiction Of Life In A Police Department.

Author J.C. De Ladurantey uses his forty plus years of law enforcement experience and street savvy to bring his readers into his 'A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along' series. 'INSIDE' brings the reader into the inner sanctum of today's law enforcement. Ride along with Officer Howard Hamilton of Orchard Hill PD and discover for yourself the mysteries that surround our brave men and women in blue, the administrative bureaucracy that controls every aspect of law enforcement, and how this bureaucracy helps and/or harms our community.

This fictional, complex and intriguing story is told with insider knowledge and integrity. Officer Hamilton is learning everything he can about open-source intelligence. He is "developing the skill to investigate hacking cases, data removal, high-tech criminal investigations, online child solicitation, abduction, kidnapping, and cold case homicides - anything that used technology. He is in his element as he expanded into understanding terrorist databases and other high-level intrusions into a world he never had known existed."

The characters reflect our brave men and women in blue doing their jobs. The situations portrayed on the clock are intense. Life and death split second decisions are made. The scrutiny and magnification of law enforcement's actions and imperfections are intensified in the media, courtrooms and in public perceptions. Due to the realistic depiction of life in a police department, significant profanity and explicit sexual content, I recommend this book for ages 16 and up.

I especially enjoyed the conversations and comradery within the work environment. I found the everyday home and family drama made the characters very relatable. The life within the community shared brought a sense of humanity, along with the daily struggle between good and evil.

Let me bring you into the story: "Hamilton could not concentrate on what was in front of him. He flashed back eight years when his life with Clare and the kids was so simple. He patrolled a city with very little violent crime, almost no major drug problem other than weed in the high schools, and never the contentious issues he has been involved in since being assigned to Narcotics and Vice. Chaos seemed to reign once outside the city limits of Orchard Hill. Inside Orchard Hill was just fantasy land now. Do we need to go out of the city to protect our city, or do we patrol the perimeter to ensure evil doesn't enter?"

Our law enforcement is tasked with keeping communities safe. All they ask in return, acknowledgment of the complexities of the job, respect for each officer's commitment to serve, and the ability to return home to their family at the end of their shift.

I invite you to read 'A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along' crime suspense mystery thriller series 'COWARDS, CROOKS AND WARRIORS', 'TWENTY-THREE MINUTES', 'AVAILABLE TIME' and 'INSIDE'.

COWARDS, CROOKS AND WARRIORS by J. C. De Ladurantey.

A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

Family man and police officer Howard Hamilton happily works the quiet night shift in the Orchard Hills community of California. One evening, he is in a situation where he might have used his firearm but froze, which is when he starts to question his qualifications as a Police Officer. Then, the unthinkable happens: a rookie officer is killed.

When the department struggles with their first on-duty death in ten years, the new chief transfers HH to day watch-where the bad luck really begins. Within days, another officer has a heart attack. Then, HH's good friend accidentally kills an officer while hunting. HH becomes unwittingly embroiled in a drug-dealing cop's arrest. The OHPD is in a state of duress!

While the department swirls in the windstorm of deaths, HH discovers the body of Ginny, sister to the largest business owner in town. She has been brutally slain in a ritualistic murder, which brings in the LAPD's occult expert. HH wants nothing more than to return to the usual night shift and his family, but first, he has to work with his nemesis to unravel a horrendous crime in a city once lauded for its peace and quiet.

Review by Thomas Zane Reeves: 5.0 out of 5 Stars. Doesn't miss a beat! Reviewed in the United States on June 16, 2015. Verified Purchase. This is a thoroughly good read that treats the reader to a police officer with thoroughly human emotions, ethics and character. Office "HH" Howard Hamilton of the Orchard Hills Police Department copes in a compelling style with the unexpected deaths of three fellow officers, while finding himself in the middle of a murder mystery that keeps the reader guessing until the very last page. Most of all, the author creates an "everyman" with whom everyone can identify, a man who loves his family and is loyal to his police brothers and sisters, I read a lot---this book deserves a five-star rating!

Review by S Day: 5.0 out of 5 Stars. Great behind the scenes look at police work. Reviewed in the United States on September 24, 2015. Verified Purchase. For cops, the story will sound familiar, however for nonlaw enforcement it will introduce them to a slice of what it realistically looks like to be a street cop. The author has done a terrific job in painting an environment in which one feels like the invisible person at the scene. This story follows the life of a uniformed street cop who is loaned to detectives for a special homicide case which is singularly unique. You can feel the anxiety of this cop as he struggles to meet the demands of his career and his family. Great read!

TWENTY-THREE MINUTES by J.C. De Ladurantey.

A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

Twenty-Three Minutes takes you on a ride-along in the front seat of a patrol car with Officer Howard Hamilton of Orchard Hill PD. He loves working the streets and finds out he is assigned to train a new recruit who may be a former gang member. His adventures take him to a possible suicide that just does not add up. His former drug dealing partner demands he assist him in taking down a drug cartel that is bringing drugs to Orchard Hill schools. His wife announces she wants to be a yoga teacher just about the time he finds his daughter in a drug house. If that is not enough, he conducts a traffic accident investigation where he may file charges against one of his wife's friends, the dreaded soccer Mom. What could go wrong?

Review by jeff dryer: 5.0 out of 5 Stars. A realistic look at police work and the excitement that comes with it. Reviewed in the United States on April 15, 2019. Verified Purchase. What a great story! A street cop that loves what he does especially in the early morning hours when real crime takes place and not the day shift where reports are taken and pr work is done. Officer Hamilton loves his family, but his thoughts are always 'on the job'. The author takes you along on a very entertaining ride in a black and white that deals with drugs, sex and soccer moms and their parking problems. Quite a spectrum to cover but Joe D does it in great detail and gives the reader a very enjoyable experience.

Review by Robert Moody: 5.0 out of 5 Stars. Great memories! Reviewed in the United States on May 16, 2019. Verified Purchase. Joe really hit it for me. Having been a Leo from 1957 to 2000, I can relate to what HH went through, not only in his experiences but his thoughts as well. Review by Bob Power: 5.0 out of 5 Stars. A compelling real-life detective novel that pulls you in and keeps you there. Reviewed in the United States on August 15, 2023. This was an excellent novel depicting the duties, administrative hurdles, conundrums, investigative techniques, and interpersonal relationships of an experienced urban police officer. The author rapidly moved the storyline into compelling real-life situations that must surely confront married officers with family and workplace challenges and rewards. I particularly like the way J.C. painted believable policing and personal scenarios in ways that made me feel I was witnessing the actual events. I also like the way he intertwined multiple investigations to hold my attention without becoming confused. This made the novel easy to follow and held my interest from start to finish.

AVAILABLE TIME by J. C. De Ladurantey.

A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along.

The new media jaded the public's views of law enforcement across the country. Granted, police work is not always pretty, but with over 200,000 law enforcement officers having an average of ten contacts per day (and many with more), the views that are being presented are not fair and balanced. That is not law enforcement in the majority of communities. Readers can still get excited about a cop thriller and the suspense of cases without being dragged into the abyss of brutality, racism and antagonism or even excessive force.

Making Your Memories with Rock & Roll and Doo-Wop:
The Music and Artists of the 1950s and Early 1960s by J.C. De Ladurantey.

Making Your Memories with Rock & Roll and Doo-Wop: The Music and Artists of the 1950s and Early 1960s digs back through the catalogue of popular music and brings to life the solo artists, duos, and groups whose music once filled the airwaves and turntables with rock & roll and doo-wop. The Doctor of Doo-Wop, J.C. De Ladurantey, brings his expertise, honed by hosting a weekly radio show, "Making Your Memories," to his revelation of the backstories of these trendsetting artists.

Until the British Invasion in mid-1963 changed the direction of American music, the sounds created by the artists profiled in Making Your Memories with Rock & Roll and Doo-Wop shaped the entertainment soundtrack of a generation. This music history shares the little-known details of the lives of these artists, the history of the period, the distinctiveness of the music, and the power and influence of the songs' lyrics.

Making Your Memories with Rock & Roll and Doo-Wop: The Music and Artists of the 1950s and Early 1960s will leave echoes of the time's memorable songs in your mind's ear and their lyrics on the tip of your tongue. You'll discover a fresh desire to find the recordings and give them another "spin" on your "record player," even if your digital music lives in the cloud.

I remember 45's and LPs - rushing home after school to play my new favorites. The sound of the record dropping on the spindle, the scratchy seconds of suspense before the first song started. Joe De Ladurantey captures the pure joy of the music and the raw talent of the artists. I like that he also tells you what NOT to expect in this book. He is the first to admit this is not a political or deep analysis of the lyrics or music, but more a celebration of both. Take your time with this book - he's packed a lot of fabulous information in here. I also love the story of how Joe got started with the radio show. About The Author: His latest book is AVAILABLE TIME - A Howard Hamilton Ride-Along. It is the third in the Howard Hamilton series so look for it in early 2021!

J.C. De Ladurantey, with over forty, (yes 40!) years of law enforcement experience at all levels, combines street savvy with real police department intrigue in his crime writing novel, COWARDS, CROOKS, AND WARRIORS. Now his latest book: TWENTY-THREE MINUTES is available on Amazon and continues the ride-along with Officer Howard Hamilton of Orchard Hill PD.

Under his radio name, "Joe D, The Doctor of Doo Wop", he also hosts a radio show "MAKING YOUR MEMORIES, the music, and artists of the 1950s and early 60's on FM 88.5 and HD-2 on KSBR in Los Angeles and Orange County. He still does not know what he wants to be when he grows up.

He has gone from writing textbooks, publishing his doctoral dissertation (ugh!) to hanging out with his cop friends and musical artists who made the 1950's and early 60's the 1950's and early 60's.

His efforts include narration of his two books for Audible, iTunes, and Amazon. He also narrates for other crime/mystery novelists such as Dallas Gorham and Kip Meyerhoff. There are several other authors waiting in the pipeline. The fun never stops!

From COWARDS, CROOKS, AND WARRIORS to his Doo-Wop book he is launching a sequel to CCW, "TWENTY-THREE MINUTES". Thanks for letting him live the dream. Namaste.
